10 Civ. 4089 (DLC)

MEMORANDUM OPINION
AND ORDER

DENISE COTE, District Judge:

On May 18, 2010, pro se plaintiff Ida Smith ("Smith") filed her complaint seeking to have a survey map of real property in the U.S. Virgin Islands ("USVI") registered at the Cadastral's Office in the USVI; to have the Court determine the boundary lines of property in the USVI; to remove a "mandate" placed on the USVI property; and monetary damages of $29,312,250. All defendants are alleged to be citizens of St. Thomas in the USVI. The complaint grounded subject matter jurisdiction on diversity of citizenship. On June 8, the Court issued an Order to Show Cause why the case should not be transferred to the District Court of the U.S. Virgin Islands. In an affidavit filed June 25, Smith stated that she was in the process of amending her complaint to add a 42 U.S.C. § 1983 claim. She also implied that she would not receive fair and impartial treatment in a USVI court.

Venue is governed by 28 U.S.C. § 1391. Under that statute, if subject matter jurisdiction is based on diversity of citizenship of the parties, a case may be brought only in (1) a judicial district where any defendant resides, if all defendants reside in the same State, (2) a judicial district in which a substantial part of the events or omissions giving rise to the claim occurred, or a substantial part of property that is the subject of the action is situated, or (3) a judicial district in which any defendant is subject to personal jurisdiction at the time the action is commenced, if there is no district in which the action may otherwise be brought.

28 U.S.C. § 1391(a) (emphasis supplied). If the civil action is based on a question of federal law, such as a § 1983 claim, the case may be brought only in (1) a judicial district where any defendant resides, if all defendants reside in the same State, (2) a judicial district in which a substantial part of the events or omissions giving rise to the claim occurred, or a substantial part of property that is the subject of the action is situated, or (3) a judicial district in which any defendant may be found, if there is no district in which the action may otherwise be brought.

28 U.S.C. § 1391(b) (emphasis supplied).

The plaintiff has not alleged any facts to justify venue in the Southern District of New York, even if the complaint is amended to allege a § 1983 claim. Smith has alleged that all defendants reside in the USVI and that the dispute revolves around real property in the USVI and events taking place in the USVI. She has not alleged that any defendant would be subject to personal jurisdiction here, nor that any defendant may be found in the Southern District of New York, much less that there is no district in which this case could otherwise be brought.

CONCLUSION

The Clerk of Court shall transfer this case to the District Court for the U.S. Virgin Islands.

II. Basis for Jurisdiction:

Federal courts are courts of limited jurisdiction. Only two types of cases can be heard in federal court: cases involving a federal question and cases involving diversity of citizenship of the parties. Under 28 U.S.C. § 1331, a case involving the United States Constitution or federal laws or treaties is a federal question case. Under 28 U.S.C. § 1332, a case in which a citizen of one state sues a citizen of another state and the amount in damages is more than $75,000 is a diversity of citizenship case.

A. What is the basis for federal court jurisdiction? (check all that apply)

☐ Federal Questions

☒ Diversity of Citizenship

B. If the basis for jurisdiction is Federal Question, what federal Constitutional, statutory or treaty right is at issue?

C. If the basis for jurisdiction is Diversity of Citizenship, what is the state of citizenship of each party?

Attached and is stamped with the date and time submitted to the court) and he also said there was no rationale for the request. The rationale is the written request from the Cadastral's office, Chester Paul. The late Judge D'Erano committed suicide in April 2009, I put in my motion February 2009. A survey of 13A Estate Friese was done in 1961 and 1986 by N.O. Wells and Charles Hamilton respectively. The map done by N.O. Wells was deemed inaccurate in 1967 by Judge Walter Gordon. The map done by Charles Hamilton is the exact same map as N.O. Wells and it inaccurately includes Estate 14I John's Folly. I have copies of a composite map certified by the Cadastral's office which shows the delineation of 13A and 14I. Judge Alphonso Christian was a lawyer for the ~~plaintiffs~~ ^{defendants}, predecessors and became a judge and did not recuse himself from this case in the 80's. An order dated November 2008 states Judge Alphonso Christian should have recused himself in order to preclude

As to the question who else saw what happened, Paula Claxton, clerk of courts in U.S. Virgin Islands and Vicki George, supervisor to Paula Claxton, saw the map I submitted with the motion to the late
